Staffordshire student Caitlyn Harper makes waves on and off the water

Sixteen-year-old full-time student Caitlyn Harper is proving that youth is no barrier to passion and ambition. Standing 162.56 cm tall, Caitlyn balances her academic responsibilities with a deep love for the water, spending her free time surfing and paddle boarding.

Born and raised in Staffordshire, Caitlyn has cultivated an adventurous spirit that extends well beyond the classroom. Whether she's catching waves or navigating a paddle board, she embraces every challenge with enthusiasm and determination.

"I've always felt happiest when I'm on the water," says Caitlyn. "Surfing and paddle boarding give me a sense of freedom and focus that I carry into everything I do."

Caitlyn's dedication to both her studies and her hobbies has inspired peers and community members alike. As she continues to grow in her academic and sporting pursuits, Caitlyn is setting a powerful example of how to balance education with personal passions.

Caitlyn is sponsored by In Life
