PRESS RELEASE OCTOBER 2025

Miss England Semi Finals results - 7th October 2025

The Semi-Final of Miss England 2025 took place in spectacular style at The Grand Station, Wolverhampton, on Friday 3rd October 2025. Thirty nine inspiring contestants from across the country competed for a place in the national final, taking part in a series of exciting and meaningful challenges leading up to the event.

In a lead up to the event the contestants were tested across a variety of rounds including Sports, Bare Face (make-up free) , Talent, Public Vote, and the Beauty with a Purpose fundraising challenge, showcasing not only their beauty but also their intelligence, creativity, and commitment to charitable causes.

On the night of the show , the contestants took to the stage wearing 1950s-inspired ethical fashion, which they created themselves by using recycled materials and shopping in charity shops. After receiving the sustainability brief from Wedoethical.org, the contestants showcased their creativity and eco-consciousness through their upcycled designs. The winner of this award was Mary Ann Jennings, an emergency responder from Grimsby, who wowed the judges with her remarkable outfit made entirely from potato sacks!

The list of contestants who progressed through to the final so far are at the end of this press release but it was a very close contest!

Every contestant in the Semi final contest received an Infinity bracelet from Diamond Dealer Direct, located in the famous Jewellery Quarter in Birmingham. The top fundraiser for the Beauty with a Purpose charity challenge, Coral Jo Antwhistle, was presented with a beautiful diamond pendant from Diamond Dealer Direct in recognition of her incredible efforts. Collectively, the contestants raised an impressive £10,461.00 for the Miss World charity Beauty with a Purpose, with Coral Jo Antwhistle from Hexham in Northumberland personally raising £3,600 by hosting her own fundraising event.

The Miss England National Final will return to The Grand Station on 20th and 21st November 2025, where finalists will compete for the prestigious title of Miss England 2025. The winner will go on to represent England at the 73rd Miss World competition, scheduled to be held in Spring 2026.

The event was also broadcast live on The Beauty Queen Channel, available on Amazon Fire, allowing pageant fans from across the country to tune in and enjoy the show from home.

Miss England Director Angie Beasley said:

“It’s great to be back at The Grand Station Wolverhampton for the second year. It’s such a convenient location right next to the train station, with plenty of parking and a hotel on-site. The staff and the food are both incredible.”

The Miss England contest continues to highlight the diverse talent, compassion, and ambition of young women across the nation, celebrating beauty with purpose and positive impact.
