Meet Victoria Quinlan – (27)

Miss Manchester & the Miss England Sportswoman Winner 2025

After conquering the gruelling Miss England Sports Round led by Andy Osborne of CrossFit Leicester, Victoria proved she's one of the fittest women in the competition — earning her place in the Miss England Final 12 this November!

Originally from Stockport, Manchester raised in West Yorkshire & now in Saddle worth Manchester, Victoria trained in Dance & Musical Theatre at Doreen Bird College, graduating with First Class Honours. After overcoming a serious hip injury through determination and discipline, she's now back stronger than ever — hiking peaks like Snowdon, Crib Goch, Helvellyn, and Scafell Pike!

Beyond the stage, Victoria runs her own dog grooming business, having turned her lifelong love for animals into a full-time career. She's also passionate about raising awareness for Camp Beagle, campaigning to end testing on beagles across the UK.

Victoria will now compete in the Miss England Final & plans to enter the Talent, Bare Face Top Model, and Ethical Fashion rounds in the contest , to showcase her creativity, confidence, and compassion.

The Miss England Final –is being held over two days 20th & 21st November, Grand Station Wolverhampton
