

Set on Kent's picturesque coastline, the hotel is set to become the perfect location for travellers looking to explore natural landscapes and charming seaside towns

DOVER, UK – After nearly 200 years as a cherished coastal landmark, the Grade II listed Dover Marina Hotel & Spa is entering a bold new chapter as part of Tapestry Collection by Hilton. Following a multi-million-pound restoration, the hotel unveils an inspired blend of Regency-era elegance and contemporary comforts, offering guests a unique experience on the edge of the English Channel.

Overlooking the world-famous White Cliffs of Dover, the hotel's meticulous refurbishment has revived its architectural grandeur while introducing refined interiors that reflect a Britain rooted in heritage yet open to the world. Every detail has been considered to create a destination that feels both timeless and distinctly modern.

A New Chapter in Coastal Elegance

Guests will discover:

- 122 elegantly reimagined guest rooms, many with panoramic sea views – ideal for sunrise coffee or moonlit reflection.
- Marco Pierre White's Mr. White's English Chophouse, celebrating classic British cuisine with a fresh, modern twist.

- The Churchill Bar, where British legacy meets contemporary style in a warm, inviting atmosphere.
- The rejuvenated Waterfront Spa offers seven serene treatment rooms, a sauna, steam room, spa pool, and a fully equipped, state-of-the-art gym.
- With panoramic coastal views, the hotel's elegant event spaces provide a memorable setting for life's most meaningful moments.
