

PRESS RELEASE - MAY 2026

Miss England Semi Final 2026: Celebrating Beauty with a Purpose

The journey to the crown continues as the Miss England Semi Final 2026 will bring together an inspiring group of young women from across the country — each representing not only beauty, but ambition and purpose.

Held at the Melton Theatre, Melton Mowbray in Leicestershire, this year's semi-final will showcase a diverse and talented line-up of contestants, all proudly wearing their Miss England Semi Finalist sashes as they take one step closer to the prestigious national final. As a special highlight this year, an additional competition will also be held to find the next Mr England!

A Platform for Purpose

Miss England has long stood for more than just a title. With its alignment to the Miss World “Beauty with a Purpose” ethos, the competition empowers contestants to make a real difference in their communities.

Each semi-finalist brings her own story — from charity fundraising and academic achievements to advocacy work and career ambitions. Together, they represent the next generation of strong, driven women making an impact across England.

Style, Confidence & Diversity

Dressed elegantly in black and united by their iconic red sashes in this image, the 2025 semi-finalists embodied confidence and individuality. The next competition will highlight not only their personal style but also their poise, presentation in the various qualifying rounds such as the Make up Free to celebrate natural beauty, a Talent & Sportsround & an ethical fashion show, all qualities required to progress to the next stage of the competition.

The semi-final is an important moment for contestants to:

- Present themselves to judges
- Share their personal journeys
- Demonstrate confidence and communication skills
- Showcase their commitment to meaningful causes & enter the various rounds in the lead up to the competition.
- The reigning Miss England Grace Richardson , a performing arts student from Leicester will make a special guest performance at the event.
- The next Mr England contest will be held making the contest a double celebration and contestants will be encouraged to raise funds for BALLS TO CANCER as part of the contest after the competition raised over £23k for this charity in 2024.
